Directions to the conference venue from Belgrade Nikola Tesla Airport via public transportation and transport companies

Nikola Tesla Airport is the largest airport in Serbia with commercial flights. The airport is located in Surcin near Belgrade, 75 kilometers from Novi Sad. You can reach the city of Novi Sad either by train or transport companies.

By train:

Take the bus from the airport to the main Railway Station Belgrade Centar (Železnička stanica Beograd Centar), from where you will board the train to Petrovaradin (Novi Sad). The procedure is as follows: when you get off the airport, go to the bus station Aerodrom Nikola Tesla/dolasci/ (Nikola Tesla Airport /arrivals/) and take the bus line number 600. This line operates approximately every 30 minutes. You need to go 12 stops until you reach Belgrade Centre railway station (Železnička stanica Beograd Centar). The ride takes about 32 minutes. Right across the street is the train station. There are 3 types of trains (the difference between them is the time it takes to get to Novi Sad. More information can be found at the following link: <https://novisad.travel/en/kako-doci-do-nas-2/>). One way ticket price for the Belgrade – Petrovaradin route ranges from 370 to 700 RSD (Serbian dinars) or 3.20-6.00 EUR if you buy it at the railway station or online via mobile: <https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.srbijavoz.app&hl=sr&pli=1> , Train tickets purchased on board are more expensive (additional 500 RSD per each).

How to buy a bus ticket in Belgrade:*

From January 1st, 2025 public transportation in Belgrade is free of charge.

When you reach Petrovaradin (Novi Sad) train station there is a direct bus line to the city center of Novi Sad. The tickets are free of charge, however, please double-check with the bus driver.

About Novi Sad

For three centuries already, namely as long as it has been existing under the names of Novi Sad /Újvidék/Neusatz, the city has been the space of diverse and rich cultural heritage of many nations living in it. Material and intangible cultural heritage that has been created during the past centuries is the basis serving as the foundation of an interactive network of scientific and institutions of culture, which makes Novi Sad of today the space of active meeting of cultures and diverse identities. Novi Sad was awarded with the titles of European Capital of Culture 2022 and European Youth Capital 2019 thanks to the creative energy inherent to youth groups and organizations that have contributed to an already recognizable traditional cultural platform. Novi Sad is the city of museums, galleries, and events among which the EXIT Music Festival has acquired international rewards and indisputable recognisability. With its urban core and rural surroundings Novi Sad provides the visitors the agenda of unbelievably rich content.
